What happens, step by step

01 Get ready & fun photo session — 14:00 – 14:45

14:00
Gather

- Female Meet at the bride's home, put on and adjust your matching áo dài.
- Female Photo & video session with the media crew in front of the main backdrop or the flower arch. Be playful and cheerful, this is your moment!
- Male Gather with the groom's procession nearby, outfits checked, each bearer paired with a tray.

02 Arrival of the groom's procession & tray handover — 14:45 – 15:00

14:45
Walk in

- Male Walk in through the alley/gate in a line, carrying the trays steadily. The crew films this arrival, so walk calmly and keep the trays level.
- Female Line up facing the male bearers, one female bearer opposite each male bearer.

Handover
Trao – nhận tráp

- Both Each pair hands over the tray face to face: male bearer gives, female bearer receives. Take your time, the crew shoots both close-ups and wide shots.
- Both The two teams exchange red envelopes (lì xì). Smile, it's one of the most photographed moments!
- Both Carry the trays inside and place them where the family indicates.

03 Main ceremony — 15:00 – 15:30

15:00
Stand by

- Both The two families sit at the tea table, give speeches, exchange the offerings, the couple serves tea to the elders, then the couple lights incense at the ancestors' altar.
- Both Stay nearby and quiet, out of the camera's way. Trays are filmed in close-up during this time, so don't move them unless asked.

04 Group photo & lại quả — 15:30 – 15:55

15:30 – 15:45
Group photos

- Both Photos are taken in this order. Yours is the 3rd one, so be ready right after the family photos:
  1. Couple + both sets of parents & procession leads
  2. Couple + relatives from both families
  3. Couple + all tray bearers, male and female
  4. Short couple shoot (5–7 min)

15:45 – 15:55
Lại quả

- Both The bride's family divides the offerings and returns a share to the groom's family. Help as the families direct; the crew films this too.

Good to know

Do

- Be on time: the whole schedule hangs on the 15:00 ceremony.
- Carry trays with both hands, at chest height, and keep them level.
- Smile and enjoy it: the crew is capturing natural moments.

Avoid
